

Aspira Women's Health Strengthens Board of Directors with the Addition of Dr. Sandra E. Brooks

Description

AUSTIN, Texas — November 9, 2020 — Aspira Women's Health, Inc. (Nasdaq: AWH), a bioanalytical-based women's health company, today announced the appointment of Sandra E. Brooks, MD, MBA to its Board of Directors. The addition of Dr. Brooks brings the Board composition to seven members with the majority now female.

"It's a tremendous honor to welcome Dr. Brooks to our Board of Directors at this important phase in the evolution of Aspira Women's Health. Dr. Brooks brings a wealth of knowledge and experience as a gynecologic oncologist by training as well as an experienced physician executive. Her significant insights will be invaluable as we pursue larger healthcare systems and expand into other gynecologic diseases," stated Valerie Palmieri, President, and CEO of Aspira Women's Health.

About Sandra E. Brooks, MD, MBA

Dr. Brooks is Senior Vice President & Chief Medical Officer at Thomas Jefferson University Hospitals, Center City Division, and a Professor in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Sidney Kimmel Medical College. Dr. Brooks trained in Obstetrics and Gynecology at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania and in Gynecologic Oncology at the Brigham and Women's Hospital, Harvard Medical School. Dr. Brooks also served as Professor and Director of the Division of Gynecology Oncology at the University of Maryland for 10 years where in addition to clinical practice, and teaching trainees, her research focused on health services and cancer disparities. Dr. Brooks received her MBA in Medical Services Management at Johns Hopkins University before transitioning to physician executive roles in multi-site ambulatory and health system settings.

"It is my absolute pleasure to be a board member of a company focused on improving women's lives, and has the potential to detect ovarian cancer risk in populations of women for whom established assays may be less sensitive," stated Dr. Sandra E. Brooks, Senior Vice President & Chief Medical Officer at Thomas Jefferson University Hospitals, Center City Division. "I believe my skills and perspective will complement the team, and look forward to serving with the other talented Board members."
